

Introduction

Welcome to our 40 Days of Worship through Lent 2022. Firstly a massive thank you to everyone who helped to put this together as it is a team effort.

Each day you will find a song, passage and thought related to the song along with the lyrics. Take the time to reflect on the songs and verses and ask God to speak to you through them.

We have 'themed' each day of the week to try and help mix up the songs in a week but also provide a structure through the 40 days. There is a right mix of styles and topics so it should be an interesting time reflecting on them together.

If you have any particular thoughts that come to you each day as you journey through Lent, please share them with us. Either speak to Tim on Sundays, put it on the blog post or email Tim.

If you find anything doesn't work please let Tim know so he can try to fix it for everyone.

John 1:1-5

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was with God in the beginning. Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made. In him was life, and that life was the light of all mankind. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

Paul chose this one saying “When I sing or hear this hymn it reminds me that there is one God and we need to stop and focus on him.”

It becomes very easy now days to rush everywhere, or be detached from the world and God through the overuse of technology.

Lent was a time that Jesus deliberately chose to go and rely on God and to withdraw from everyone else.

This Lent, as we work through 40 Days of Worship, remember to Be Still! And I pray that you’ll feel God’s presence as you worship God through the different songs that people have chosen and the reflections included with them.

Each of them brings you a different angle on worshipping God, so take the time each day to Be Still and worship Him, be cleansed by Him, be healed by Him and gain a greater understanding of His power.

As you start your journey through 40 Days of Worship, stop and pray that you’ll gain a closer relationship with God.

Verse 1

Be still for the presence of the Lord
The Holy One is here
Come bow before Him now
With reverence and fear
In Him no sin is found
We stand on holy ground
Be still for the presence of the Lord
The Holy One is here

Verse 2

Be still for the glory of the Lord
Is shining all around
He burns with holy fire
With splendor He is crowned
How awesome is the sight
Our radiant King of light
Be still for the glory of the Lord
Is shining all around

Verse 3

Be still for the power of the Lord
Is moving in this place
He comes to cleanse and heal
To minister His grace
No work too hard for Him
In faith receive from Him
Be still for the power of the Lord
Is moving in this place

Joshua 6

V16: The seventh time they marched around the city, the priests blew their trumpets. Then Joshua gave the command: “Now, shout! The LORD is giving you this city!”

Alan and Albert both chose this song to get us to reflect on previous experiences and how we are soldiers for God.

We have all been through different ‘battles’ in our lives and the only way to get through them is to seek out and then follow God’s will. In Joshua 6, the Israelites are obedient to following a rather strange battle plan in order to take Jericho. But onward they marched.

Jesus was given a rather strange ‘battle plan’ in order to save us – becoming obedient to death for us.

What is God’s ‘battle plan’ for your current situation or next adventure with Him?

Onward Christian Soldiers

Sabine Baring-Gould

Verse 1

Onward Christian soldiers
Marching as to war
With the cross of Jesus
Going on before
Christ the royal Master
Leads against the foe
Forward into battle
See His banners go

Chorus

Onward Christian soldiers
Marching as to war
With the cross of Jesus
Going on before

Verse 2

At the name of Jesus
Satan's host doth flee
On then Christian soldiers
On to victory
Hell's foundations quiver
At the shout of praise
Brothers lift your voices
Loud your anthems raise

Verse 3

Like a mighty army
Moves the church of God
Brothers we are treading
Where the saints have trod
We are not divided
All one body we
One in hope and doctrine
One in charity

Verse 4

Crowns and thrones may perish
Kingdoms rise and wane
But the church of Jesus
Constant will remain
Gates of hell can never
'Gainst that church prevail
We have Christ's own promise
And that cannot fail

Verse 5

Onward then ye people
Join our happy throng
Blend with ours your voices
In the triumph-song
Glory laud and honour
Unto Christ the King
This through countless ages
Men and angels sing

John 19:30
“It is finished.”

This beautiful song takes us to the heart of the Easter message that Jesus died in our place. In so doing, he effectively washed our sins away.

My guilt, my shame, my pride; all gone!

We cannot stand in the face of such a painful and powerful sacrifice. We must bow down and kneel before him in worship and gratefulness, and in renewed determination to serve the one who is worthy of every last drop of our energy in his service.

We must linger a while on the Good Friday scene before we can truly appreciate Easter Sunday!

Chorus

I come just as I am
This is my only plea
One hope in which I trust
This blood was shed for me

Verse 1

On the bloodstained ground
Where the shadow falls
Of a cross and a crown of thorns
I kneel down I kneel down
I lift my eyes to a tearstained face
Who is this dying in my place
I kneel down I kneel down

Verse 2

As you wash the stains
Of my guilty heart
'Til I'm clean in every part
I kneel down I kneel down
Wash away my shame my pain my pride
Every sin that I once denied
I kneel down I kneel down

All the way my saviour leads me

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vh2cHbEeTZ0>

Proverbs 16:9

In their hearts humans plan their course, but the LORD establishes their steps.

Matthew 4:4

Jesus answered, "It is written: 'Man shall not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.'"

This classic hymn reminds us that our Lord has plans for our lives that we can choose to follow. Jesus knew that He had a plan given for Him to follow, which included being tested in the wilderness by the Devil. The first of the temptations is to create bread from stones. And Jesus refused, instead trusting in God rather than misusing his powers to satisfy his own needs.

Later on in the Gospels, Jesus comments that He is the bread of life, which we can follow and use to nourish our lives, which is picked up at the end of the first verse of the hymn.

How are you doing at following God's plan for your life?

Verse 1

All the way my Saviour leads me
What have I to ask beside
Can I doubt His tender mercy
Who through life has been my guide
Heavenly peace divinest comfort
Here by faith in Him to dwell
For I know whate'er befall me
Jesus doeth all things well

Verse 2

All the way my Saviour leads me
Cheers each winding path I tread
Gives me grace for every trial
Feeds me with the Living Bread
Though my weary steps may falter
And my soul athirst may be
Gushing from a Rock before me
Lo a spring of joy I see

Verse 3

And all the way my Saviour leads me
Oh the fullness of His love
Perfect rest to me is promised
In my Father's house above
And when my spirit clothed immortal
Wings its flight to realms of day
This my song through endless ages
Jesus led me all the way

1 John 1 v 9

If we confess our sins he is faithful and just and will forgive us
our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness

This is one of Jeff's favourite modern hymns and is one of the nation's most used songs.

This song says so many different things which is probably why it is one of the favourites. It covers our relationship with God, how through Christ we're saved, and how in Jesus' strength we're able to stand in victory.

Where do you need Jesus to strengthen you today? Like with our verse for the year, God wants to strengthen and help us. So confess where you need to confess, and ask God to give you the strength to stand in Jesus' name.

In Christ Alone

Verse 1

In Christ alone my hope is found
He is my light my strength my song
This Cornerstone this solid Ground
Firm through the fiercest drought and storm
What heights of love what depths of peace
When fears are stilled when strivings cease
My Comforter my All in All
Here in the love of Christ I stand

Verse 2

In Christ alone who took on flesh
Fullness of God in helpless babe
This gift of love and righteousness
Scorned by the ones He came to save
Till on that cross as Jesus died
The wrath of God was satisfied
For every sin on Him was laid
Here in the death of Christ I live

Verse 3

There in the ground His body lay
Light of the world by darkness slain
Then bursting forth in glorious Day
Up from the grave He rose again
And as He stands in victory
Sin's curse has lost its grip on me
For I am His and He is mine
Bought with the precious blood of Christ

Verse 4

No guilt in life no fear in death
This is the power of Christ in me
From life's first cry to final breath
Jesus commands my destiny
No power of hell no scheme of man
Can ever pluck me from His hand
Till He returns or calls me home
Here in the power of Christ I'll stand

Ephesians 2:4

But because of his great love for us, God, who is rich in mercy, made us alive with Christ even when we were dead in transgressions--it is by grace you have been saved.

Psalm 103:1

Praise the LORD, O my soul; all my inmost being, praise his holy name. who satisfies your desires with good things so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.

Both Ann and Margaret chose this one, with Ann really enjoying it when the full congregation are able to join in.

Margaret wrote: Apparently this song was inspired by Psalm 103 when David is telling himself to praise God with his whole heart .

I know this isn't a song really about Easter but it's one I really like. This is all about singing as we worship God, none of us in our family are singers although Santi does blast it out as part of his medley of songs he sings on his way home each day. It starts with the sun coming up, well if the suns shining when I get up that's always a better start to the day for me. The song was sung at Hannah and Dans wedding, my Aunt said she didn't know the song but this is definitely my aunts song. The song talks about the day when our strength is failing, Aunt would admit her strength is failing but she sings all the time worshipping God with all her old favourites. When I get to that day when my strength is failing I doubt I'll be singing out loud like aunt but in my head I'll still have lots of reasons to sing Gods praises.

Verse 1

The sun comes up it's a new day dawning
It's time to sing Your song again
Whatever may pass and whatever lies before me

Verse 2

For all Your goodness I will keep on singing
Ten thousand reasons for my heart to find

Verse 3

And on that day when my strength is failing

Amazing Grace

Ephesians 2:8-9

For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God— not by works, so that no one can boast.

Put yourself in Jesus' sandals. You're probably about 30, and your mission is relatively unknown, except to John the Baptist who heard God's voice declare that you're his son. Up to now you've been relatively normal, except at your birth.

And now you're wandering in the wilderness. No food. No drink. No one with you. Well the devil shows up to tempt you, but no one helpful.

Jesus faith in God's masterplan is what got him through those challenges.

We can face all sorts of challenges, and with God's help we can overcome them and find his will in the situation.

Then once we've followed Jesus all the way, after 10,000 years, we'll still be able to celebrate God's gift of Amazing Grace to us.

Amazing Grace

John Newton

Verse 1

Amazing grace how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me
I once was lost but now am found
Was blind but now I see

Verse 2

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear
And grace my fears relieved
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed

Verse 3

Through many dangers toils and snares
I have already come
'Tis grace has brought me safe thus far
And grace will lead me home

Verse 4

When we've been there ten thousand years
Bright shining as the sun
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Than when we've first begun

What a beautiful name

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=r5L6QIAH3L4>

John 1:1, 14

Before the world began, the Word was there. The Word was with God, and the Word was God.

The Word became a man and lived among us. We saw his divine greatness—the greatness that belongs to the only Son of the Father. The Word was full of grace and truth.

Steve writes: This is a beautiful song full of striking imagery to make you stop and THINK! The tune is meditative but builds to a powerful crescendo of praise.

Beginning at the beginning with God's hidden Word, the song reveals this to be Jesus Himself and celebrates the power of His name (which means Saviour of course). It starts with Creation and takes us through Jesus' death to the silence of the grave and on to the "roaring" heavens. It's quite the tour de force!

But the line that won't leave me is, You didn't want heaven without us so Jesus You brought heaven down. The bluntness of the words are shocking - and the truth revealed is the greatest truth that can be revealed, which is also shocking. God loves us so much He wants us to spend eternity with Him and He was willing to pay any price to accomplish that. The price was the death of His Son. As a father and grandfather, words fail me to express such love....

You didn't want heaven without us
So Jesus You brought heaven down
My sin was great,
Your love was greater
What could separate us now

Ephesians 6:10-20 (11 and 12 below)

Put on the full armour of God, so that you can take your stand against the devil's schemes. For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms.

Jerusalem is Marie's favourite and has at times been the number 1 hymn on Songs of Praise. It asks the question of whether Jesus visited England (not likely) with potential reference to the industrial revolution. As with any poem, it is important to not necessarily take it too literally but it was used as an anthem for equal rights by the suffragettes and does call us to arms with its rousing tune.

It calls to mind the passage about the armour of God in Ephesians 6. It is important to remember that we are also told by Jesus in John 13:15 that "I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you." We're called to be Jesus' hands and feet and to carry on the work that He started. Where we see injustice we need to ask God to equip us to fight it, in his strength and with his weapons of truth, grace, mercy and his word.

Verse 1

And did those feet in ancient time
Walk upon England's mountains green?
And was the holy Lamb of God
On England's pleasant pastures seen?
And did the countenance divine
Shine forth upon our clouded hills?
And was Jerusalem builded here
Among those dark Satanic mills?

Verse 2

Bring me my bow of burning gold
Bring me my arrows of desire
Bring me my spear O clouds unfold
Bring me my chariot of fire
I will not cease from mental fight
Nor shall my sword sleep in my hand
Till we have built Jerusalem
In England's green and pleasant land

Isaiah 53:5

But he was pierced for our transgressions,
he was crushed for our iniquities;
the punishment that brought us peace was on him,
and by his wounds we are healed.

“But I wasn’t doing anything!!” .... “But they were doing it!!” ... “It’s not FAIR!!” .... This could be the kind of reaction from a child just caught misbehaving who didn’t want to face up to the consequences of their behaviour.

But it is also what Jesus could have said to us. He didn’t do anything wrong, that was us who were doing the sinning! And it certainly wasn’t fair that He took that punishment for us.

But take the punishment is what He did. And He didn’t moan about it either. The crowd urged him to call down angels to save him – but He didn’t. Jesus didn’t do the fair thing – on that darkest day He did the ONLY thing that could save us.

Spend some time reflecting on the pain that your sin put Jesus through on the cross in your place – thank Him that He’s taken your place to make you clean.

Matthew 14:22-33

V25 – Shortly before dawn Jesus went out to them, walking on the lake.

I couldn't let you go through 40 days of worship without one Rend Collective song in the mix!

I admit that whilst in the Bible we're told to use all of our bodies in our worship to God, dancing and actions don't come at all naturally to me! I'd much rather be at the back out of the way.

But there's something incredibly joyous that I've missed over the past 2 years, which is the kids at Messy Church worshipping God through the actions of songs like Lighthouse. And you know what, I wonder whether when Jesus said we needed to become like little children, there's something about their worship through action songs that we can learn from. They put their all into it (well, maybe not the 'cool' kids!), not caring how undignified they look, because it is about enjoying being with God.

Today – could you be brave? Have a go at worshipping God with all of you. Maybe not the jumping up and down (but that can be fun too!), but remember you have all of your body to worship God with. Could you worship Him through helping someone, through speaking to someone – take action!

Luke 24, particularly 44-53

John writes: This has been a long-time favourite since I first heard it at the Mission years ago. It doesn't have a fascinating rhythm or stunning key changes, and it's a very simple melody.

But the words .... "Because He lives I can face tomorrow" – oh yes.

Because He lives: doubting Thomas found his faith again (John 20: 24-28).

Because He lives: Peter, who betrayed Jesus and was utterly bereft, was rehabilitated and became the leader of the Apostles (John 21, 15-19).

Because He lives: a group of completely defeated disciples were totally re-energised and against overwhelming odds started the Christian movement that has grown ever after (e.g. Luke 24).

He came to love heal and forgive
He bled and died to buy my pardon
An empty grave is there to prove
My Savior lives

Chorus

Because He lives I can face tomorrow
Because He lives all fear is gone
Because I know He holds the future
And life is worth the living
Just because He lives

Verse 2

How sweet to hold our newborn baby
And feel the pride and joy he gives
But greater still the calm assurance
This child can face uncertain days
Because Christ lives

Verse 3

And then one day I'll cross that river
I'll fight life's final war with pain
And then as death gives way to vict'ry
I'll see the lights of glory
And I'll know He reigns

Psalm 119:175

Let my soul live and praise you,
and let your rules help me.

At school we used to have to sing hymns, and this must have been one of the Head's favourites as this one stuck in my mind from how often we sung it (it was number 56 in our school hymn book).

It is funny what we remember sometimes, but the songs that we learn early on tend to stick with us and help us when we're struggling, or they come to mind when we need to convey something to God.

Just taking the first line of this song, there's so much we can gain from it.

I've got to Praise – thank and adore, bow down and worship

With all My soul – with everything that I've got, anything I've got

Who? The King – my ruler, my guide, my leader, my saviour

Where? Up to Heaven – my final destination, where everything is perfect, beyond my wildest dreams and imagination.

Today, let ALL of you, praise ALL of your Heavenly King contributing your little bit to the chorus of worship in Heaven.

My hope is built on nothing less

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=QvLxZEU02uI>

1 Peter 2:6-7

For in Scripture it says:

“See, I lay a stone in Zion, a chosen and precious cornerstone, and the one who trusts in him will never be put to shame.”

Now to you who believe, this stone is precious. But to those who do not believe, “The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone,”

Sandra writes: It is a song about hope, because of what Jesus has done for us on the cross. When he seems far away, we can rely on his unchanging grace and trust him with our lives. He will be with us through all the storms of life.

When Jesus returns with sounds of trumpets, I want to be ready and be found in him, dressed in the right clothes (his righteousness), and standing faultless before him, because of his grace. He is my cornerstone. In my weakness, he makes me strong.

Verse 1

My hope is built on nothing less
Than Jesus' blood and righteousness
I dare not trust the sweetest frame
But wholly trust in Jesus' Name
(REPEAT)

Chorus

Christ alone cornerstone
Weak made strong in the Saviour's love
Through the storm He is Lord
Lord of all

Verse 2

When darkness seems to hide His face
I rest on His unchanging grace
In every high and stormy gale
My anchor holds within the veil
My anchor holds within the veil

Interlude

He is Lord Lord of all

Oh may I then in Him be found

King of Love

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Au3otElq6D4>

Psalm 23:1

The LORD is my shepherd, I lack nothing.

I was 'suggested' this song by YouTube because of my like of Rend Collective, and it is one that I like a lot. It pulls to mind the images in Psalm 23, where we're given the picture of God leading us by a relaxing stream to refresh us. Even when we wander, or are facing those dark times, our King of Love is still there to guide and comfort us.

The section that really speaks to me writing this is the chorus –

“Never failing, ruler of my heart, Everlasting, lover of my soul”

We've got a God who never fails.

We've got a God who is everlasting.

We've got a God who loves our soul (enough to die for it)

So what is our response? Can we make him the ruler of our hearts?

King of Love

© Sony/atv Tree Publishing,

The King of Love my Shepherd is
Whose goodness faileth never
I nothing lack if I am His
And He is mine forever
And He is mine forever

Where streams of living water flow
My ransomed soul He leadeth
And where the verdant pastures grow
With food celestial feedeth

Never failing, Ruler of my heart
Everlasting, Lover of my soul
On the mountain high or in the valley low
The King of Love my Shepherd is
The King of Love my Shepherd is

Lost and foolish off I strayed
But yet in love He sought me
And on His shoulder gently laid
And home rejoicing brought me

In death's dark veil I fear no ill
With Thee, dear Lord, beside me
Thy rod and staff my comfort still
Thy cross before to guide me

Never failing, Ruler of my heart
Everlasting, Lover of my soul
On the mountain high or in the valley low
The King of Love my Shepherd is
The King of Love my Shepherd is

Oh, Hallelujah, Hallelujah
Oh, Hallelujah, Hallelujah

Never failing, Ruler of my heart
Everlasting, Lover of my soul
On the mountain high or in the valley low
The King of Love my Shepherd is

Never failing, Ruler of my heart
Everlasting, Lover of my soul
On the mountain high or in the valley low
The King of Love my Shepherd is
The King of Love my Shepherd is

And so through all the length of days
Thy goodness faileth never
Good Shepherd, may I sing Your praise
Within Your house forever
Within Your house forever

For those in peril on the sea

<https://youtu.be/bDjwUzUnNpU>

Mark 4:35-41

He got up, rebuked the wind and said to the waves, “Quiet! Be still!” Then the wind died down and it was completely calm.

Albert chose this one as his favourite for its links to a dangerous and arduous life.

This song reminds us of the times that Jesus controlled the uncontrollable – He calmed a storm with His words, and He was able to walk on stormy waters.

What storms are there in your life at the moment? How is God dealing with them with you? Is He calming them with His voice? Is He just walking right on through them to rescue you? Or is He calling you out into the storm and waves like He did with Peter?

Use the song as a reminder to pray for the Trinity’s protection over you whilst you and those you know go through the many different storms of life we face.

Verse 1

Eternal Father strong to save
Whose arm doth bind the restless wave
Who bidd'st the mighty ocean deep
Its own appointed limits keep
O hear us when we cry to thee
For those in peril on the sea

Verse 2

O Saviour whose almighty word
The winds and waves submissive heard
Who walkedst on the foaming deep
And calm amid its rage didst sleep
O hear us when we cry to thee
For those in peril on the sea

Verse 3

O sacred Spirit who didst brood
Upon the waters dark and rude
And bid their angry tumult cease
And give for wild confusion peace
O hear us when we cry to thee
For those in peril on the sea

Verse 4

O Trinity of love and pow'r
Our brethren shield in danger's hour
From rock and tempest fire and foe
Protect them whereso'er they go
And ever let there rise to thee
Glad hymns of praise from land and sea

Into the darkness

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=qXKOxub5obc>

John 1:4,5

In him was life, and that life was the light of all mankind.

The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

Colin writes: This beautiful worship song reminds us of Jesus, the light of the world, coming into this dark place. We tend to sing it in the run up to Christmas but there are important messages to be heard in all seasons!

Our world is a dark place in many ways, not least because so many people live without the light of God in their lives. Jesus brings that light into our lives. And yet that light reflected in us can so easily grow dim.

Let us invite Him to burn brightly in us once again.

Verse 1

Into the darkness of this world
Into the shadows of the night
Into this loveless place You came
Lightened our burdens eased our pain
And made these hearts Your home
Into the darkness once again
O come Lord Jesus come

Chorus 1

Come with Your love to make us whole
Come with Your light to lead us on
Driving the darkness far from our souls
O come Lord Jesus come

Verse 2

Into the longing of our souls
Into these heavy hearts of stone
Shine on us now Your piercing light
Order our lives and souls aright
By grace and love unknown
Until in You our hearts unite
O come Lord Jesus come

Verse 3

O Holy Child Emmanuel
Hope of the ages God with us
Visit again this broken place
Till all the earth declares Your praise
And Your great mercies own
Now let Your love be born in us
O come Lord Jesus come

Chorus 2

(LAST CHORUS)

Come in Your glory take Your place

We long to see You face to face
O come Lord Jesus come

Guide me o thou great redeemer

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=y3NmfmVGblw>

Exodus 13:22

Neither the pillar of cloud by day nor the pillar of fire by night left its place in front of the people.

Mike selected this hymn as it reminds him of his youth and him playing school rugby in the Rhondda Valley (after which the tune is named). It is one of the few Welsh songs (after a bit of translation) to have become popular in English and as such was used as an informal 'anthem' during the Welsh section of the 2012 Olympics opening ceremony. It will probably be sung today as part of the final games of the Six Nations.

The song takes us on the journey of Christian faith, reminding us of our weakness, His strength and provision, His guidance, leading and comfort. It then tells us what our response should be to all of that:

“Songs of praises songs of praises
I will ever give to Thee
I will ever give to Thee”

Low in the grave He lay (Christ Arose)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2fs760h4yI4>

Romans 6 vv8-11(ERV)

Now if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. For we know that since Christ was raised from the dead, he cannot die again; death no longer has mastery over him. The death he died, he died to sin once for all; but the life he lives, he lives to God.

Heather writes, this is my favourite Easter hymn as it contrasts the sadness of Good Friday and Christ's death (in the sad or minor key for the verse) and the happiness of Easter Sunday and the resurrection (in the happy or major key for the chorus).

This recording of it is especially good at contrasting the two and that's why I've chosen it.

The verse that I've chosen to go with it also details how Christ died and defeated death and how we too should live as being dead to sin but alive for God.

Yes we are sad because of our human nature being prone to sinning, but we are happy that he forgives our sin and enables us to look forward to the future with hope.

Blessed be Your name

Luke 61:22-23

Blessed are you when people hate you, when they exclude you and insult you and reject your name as evil, because of the Son of Man.

“Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, because great is your reward in heaven. For that is how their ancestors treated the prophets.

I think this is probably my second or third earliest ‘favourite’ song (behind My Jesus, My Saviour and the riff from Touching Heaven, Changing Earth) and is certainly one that stuck with me for ages.

At uni, I heard about a Christian festival called Greenbelt that was based at Cheltenham racecourse. When I went, there’d recently been some quite bad flooding nearby that had affected the local area. We were worshipping at the main stage where Matt Redman (the author) was signing the song, and as we get to the second verse where it says ‘when the sun’s shining down on me’ for the first time that weekend the sun comes out from the clouds and lights up the whole area. We all sang that verse a couple of times in response to God.

No matter whether you’re going through a desert place (like Jesus was), or the world’s all as it should be – take the time to praise God today for who He is.

How He loves us

<https://youtu.be/GzfPHnoT0-0>

John 3:16

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

Dan commented: It reminds me of how loved we are by God, despite all our indiscretions.

He loves US.

He sent His son to die on the cross for us so that we can have eternal life with Him. Like John 3:16, it talks about God's overwhelming love for us and being drawn to redemption by His grace.

Allow the imagery in the song to remind you of how powerful God's love for you is.

Marie has chosen this song by a Christian artist called Carrie Underwood who rose to fame via American Idol where she won and the first song she released was 'Jesus take the wheel' (which is also worth looking up - <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=lydBpM2KRau>) There is a place for us comes from one of the Narnia films and we've heard in church several times about the links between some of the narrative in the Chronicles of Narnia and the Easter story (especially The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe). There is a place for us reminds us that we've got a place that Jesus is preparing for us in Heaven, where our faith in God makes us belong, just as we are – clothed in King Jesus' righteousness.

Spend some time today appreciating what Jesus has done to prepare a place for you to be with Him and God in Heaven.

More than just a prayer or anything you've ever dreamed of
So when you feel like giving up

We can be the kings and queens of anything if we believe
It's written in the stars that shine above
A world where you and I belong
Where faith and love will keep us strong
Exactly who we are is just enough
There's a place for us, there's a place for us

When the water meets the sky
Where your heart is free and hope comes back to life
When these broken hands are whole again
We'll find what we've been waiting for
We were made for so much more

We can be the kings and queens of anything if we believe
It's written in the stars that shine above
A world where you and I belong
Where faith and love will keep us strong

The Word was with God, and the Word was God.

A google search said “This is a protest song from South Africa and was sung by those protesting against apartheid. It can still be sung as a call for freedom, in solidarity with those who are oppressed, or simply as a commitment to living in the light, love and power of God.”

This is part of Santiago’s car repertoire, a long with 10,000 reasons which he will often enthusiastically sing on our 30-minute journey to and from pre-school. When asked why he likes this song, he said “because it’s big John’s favourite song and it makes big John happy”.

It makes me happy when he is singing away to his “Jesus’ songs”, you can’t not smile and pray that it will always be like this, that he will grow up marching in the light of God.

Mary did you know?

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=bYe7odIJLFO>

Matthew 1:21

She will give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins.

This seemed like an appropriate song for the day when churches traditionally remember Mary being visited by the Angel Gabriel.

Hannah writes: Lowry who wrote the song said, “As my mind went back to the manger scene, I began to think about the power, authority and majesty she cradled in her arms.”

The song repeatedly asks whether Mary knew all the wonderful things that her baby would go on to do, that He would walk on water, give sight to a blind man, calm storms and save our sons and daughters. Yes, Mary knew her son was the Son of God, the angel told her in Luke 1:31 and maybe, even more than other mums-to-be, she wondered what His life would have in store.

The song, whilst typically one we’d hear at Christmas, leads us to remember how Jesus came as a baby, the miracles He did during His time on earth and through to Easter, when as prophesied, He died to save us from our sins. Jesus is The Great I AM.

Psalm 23:4

Even if I walk through a valley as dark as the grave,
I will not be afraid of any danger, because you are with me.
Your rod and staff comfort me.

Dave writes: On the morning of 18/9/2016 whilst on holiday in Gozo, Malta for some reason my attention was drawn to the front cover of my Bible on which this particular verse was printed – it really registered at the time but I didn't have a clue why. However, later that day whilst diving at around 30m/100 feet taking photographs I suffered from the bends and was rushed into hospital – I lost the use of my legs and was placed in a decompression chamber for 6 hours to counteract the problem of having too much nitrogen in my body. I felt an unusual sense of peace in the circumstances and long story short I was transferred to the main hospital in Malta where I stayed for further sessions in a decompression chamber which successfully resolved the situation – along with prayers and support from family and friends. Although sadly I can no longer dive I did discover that I had diabetes type 2, high blood pressure and high cholesterol plus I needed to lose weight. I wasn't aware of any of those other than the last one but now as a result of this experience I know about them and they are all under control. Particular words in the song that resonate in relation to this experience and others are – 'In oceans deep my faith will stand' – 'You've never failed and you won't start now' – 'My soul will rest in your embrace', 'I am Yours and You are mine', and because I can no longer dive I love instead 'Let me walk upon the waters!'

Philippians 2:5-11 (Verse 7 below)
Rather, he made himself nothing
by taking the very nature of a servant,
being made in human likeness.

Sharon chose this as it summed up the whole Christmas story and is pertinent to Easter as we see in verse 3.

It is sometimes easy to take sections of the Bible that inspired the festivals of Lent, Christmas and Easter out of the bigger picture. And whilst they're all important in their own right, it is important to sometimes step back and reflect on how it all links together.

Without Jesus' miraculous birth at Christmas, there would be no Jesus to be tempted in the wilderness at Lent. Without the temptation at Lent, there would be no sinless saviour to die for us on Good Friday. Without the death on Good Friday, there's no resurrection on Easter Sunday. And without the Ascension, there's no mediator for us in Heaven, sat at the right hand of the Father.

Use the song to pause and reflect on how it all knits together so beautifully to save us.

Verse 1

From the squalor of a borrowed stable
By the Spirit and a virgin's faith
To the anguish and the shame of scandal
Came the Savior of the human race
But the skies were filled
With the praise of heav'n
Shepherds listen as the angels tell
Of the gift of God come down to man
At the dawning of Immanuel

Verse 2

King of heaven now the friend of sinners
Humble servant in the Father's hands
Filled with power and the Holy Spirit
Filled with mercy for the broken man
Yes He walked my road and He felt my pain
Joys and sorrows that I know so well
Yet His righteous steps give me hope again
I will follow my Immanuel

Verse 3

Through the kisses of a friend's betrayal
He was lifted on a cruel cross
He was punished for a world's transgressions
He was suffering to save the lost
He fights for breath He fights for me
Loosing sinners from the claims of hell
And with a shout our souls are free
Death defeated by Immanuel

Verse 4

Now He's standing in the place of honor
Crowned with glory on the highest throne
Interceding for His own beloved
'Til His Father calls to bring them home
Then the skies will part as the trumpet sounds
Hope of heaven or the fear of hell
But the bride will run to her Lover's arms
Giving glory to Immanuel

(An Easter) Hallelujah

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=-j3NZEedHQal>

Psalm 150 (Message)

Hallelujah!

Praise God ....

Let every living, breathing creature praise GOD!

Hallelujah!

There are many covers of Leonard Cohen's Hallelujah with their mix of secular and Biblically themed lyrics. However, the version on the link is of an Easter Hallelujah. The version on the link was written when the author was asked by her priest to sing the original at an Easter service but felt the words didn't fit, so re-wrote it and got permission to record it herself from the original publishers.

Hallelujah is a two part Hebrew word meaning something like 'joyously praise the Lord'.

This morning as you listen to this version of the Easter story, what makes you want to 'joyously praise the Lord'? What can you thank Him for by singing or praying your own Hallelujah?

An Easter Hallelujah

Kelley Mooney

A crown of thorns placed on His head
He knew that He would soon be dead
He said, "Did you forget me, Father did you?"

They nailed Him to a wooden cross
Soon all the world would feel the loss
Of Christ the King before His Hallelujah
Hallelujah, Hallelujah
Hallelujah, Hallelujah

He hung His head and prepared to die
Then lifted His face up to the sky
Said, "I am coming home now Father, to you"

A reed which held His final sip
Was gently lifted to his lips
He drank His last and gave His soul to glory
Hallelujah, Hallelujah
Hallelujah, Hallelujah

The soldier who had used his sword
To pierce the body of our Lord
Said, "Truly, this was Jesus Christ our Savior"

He looked with fear upon his sword
Then turned to face his Christ and Lord

Fell to his knees crying Hallelujah
Hallelujah, Hallelujah
Hallelujah, Hallelujah

Took from his head the thorny crown
And wrapped him in a linen gown
Then laid him down to rest inside the tomb

The holes in his hands, his feet, and side
Now in our hearts, we know he died
To save us from ourselves, oh Hallelujah
Hallelujah, Hallelujah
Hallelujah, Hallelujah

Three days went by, again they came
To move the stone, to bless the slain
With oil and spice anointing Hallelujah
But as they went to move the stone
They saw that they were not alone
For Jesus Christ has risen, Hallelujah
Hallelujah, Hallelujah
Hallelujah, Hallelujah
Hallelujah, Hallelujah
Hallelujah, Hallelujah

2 Corinthians 6:18 (The Voice)

“I will be your father, and you will be my sons and daughters,”

Revelation 5:12-13

13. “All praise and honour and glory and power forever and ever to the one who sits on the throne and to the Lamb!”

Liz learnt this song the first time that Mike and her went to Spring Harvest with Tim and Ruth in 2016. This turned out to be an important year for her, and it was the year that she first picked up a bass guitar! The song talks about all the wonderful things that God does and how he turns situations around (e.g. 'who makes the orphan a son and daughter') repeatedly affirms God's absolute power in everything ('the King of glory, the King above all things') and reminds us of the ultimate sacrifice and gift that God has given us ('this is amazing love, that you would take my place,' 'You laid down your life that I would be set free').

“Aside from the happy memories attached to it, this song is a declaration of the wonder of God and a beautiful reminder that God is bigger than any problem I have.”

Verse 1

Who breaks the power of sin and darkness
Whose love is mighty and so much stronger
The King of Glory the King above all kings

Verse 2

Who shakes the whole earth with holy thunder
And leaves us breathless in awe and wonder
The King of Glory the King above all kings

Chorus

(Yeah) (Oh) This is amazing grace
This is unfailing love
That You would take my place
That You would bear my cross
You laid down Your life
That I would be set free
Oh Jesus I sing for all that You've done for me

Verse 3

Who brings our chaos back into order
Who makes the orphan a son and daughter

Now thank we all our God

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=s99dNPKYtHk>

1 Chronicles 29:13 (ERV)
Now, our God, we thank you,
and we praise your glorious name!

This is George's favourite hymn as we have so much to thank God for.

When my daughter Debbie was first diagnosed with Multiple Sclerosis (MS) by a consultant in Suffolk, she and her husband Martin were told that their chances of having a child were very slim.

Years later, the MS unit moved to Colchester and Debbie's new consultant in Essex told them, if they still wanted a child, they should start trying for one now but it may be a long wait.

One year later Abigail was born.

For this and many other reasons, I think that we should thank God. And if you'll going to do it, you should do it well. So this recording with a full orchestra, choir and a few thousand people gives thanks to God in style.

Verse 1

Now thank we all our God
With hearts and hands and voices
Who wondrous things has done
In whom His world rejoices
Who from our mothers' arms
Has blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love
And still is ours today

Verse 2

We thank You then O God
That through our life You're near us
For joy that fills our hearts
Which with Your peace restores us
Lord keep us in Your grace
And guide us when perplexed
That we may love Your ways
In this world and the next

Verse 3

All praise and thanks to God
The Father now be given
The Son and Him who reigns
With Them in highest heaven
The one eternal God
Whom earth and heaven adore
For thus it was is now
And shall be evermore

Matthew 6:26-28

<sup>28</sup> “And why do you worry about clothes? Look at the wildflowers in the field. See how they grow. They don’t work or make clothes for themselves.

Jenny’s choice reminds us of who provides us with everything we have. Which is apt for a song during Lent when Jesus relied on God for his strength and answers to the temptation thrown his way.

In the song we’re then reminded of the creation and how it is God who creates both big and small for us.

The chorus and the final verse then point us to thank God and praise Him for everything that has been provided for us.

So today look out of your window and notice what God has provided you with. Praise and thank Him for what you can see and hear and what He draws to your attention.

Verse 1

We plough the fields and scatter

The good seed on the land
But it is fed and watered
By God's almighty hand
He sends the snow in winter
The warmth to swell the grain
The breezes and the sunshine
And soft refreshing rain

Chorus

All good gifts around us
Are sent from heaven above
Then thank the Lord
O thank the Lord for all His love

Verse 2

He only is the Maker
Of all things near and far
He paints the wayside flower
He lights the evening star
The winds and waves obey Him
By Him the birds are fed
Much more to us His children
He gives our daily bread

Verse 3

We thank Thee then O Father
For all things bright and good
The seed time and the harvest
Our life our health our food
No gifts have we to offer
For all Thy love imparts
But that which Thou desirest
Our humble thankful hearts

Revelation 5:11-14 (V12 below)
“Worthy is the Lamb, who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and praise!”

Whilst today is April Fools Day, our song today deals with something very serious.

Gary said: The chorus goes, Calvary covers it all. This song is all about Jesus saving me from going to hell. I hate this world I live in with every fibre of my being, I hate it (See John 12:24–25). Because of Calvary Jesus is coming back for me to take me out of this world and I will be with Jesus forever and ever. Joy overflows in my heart when I think I'm never ever coming back to this world ever again. There is no one in Heaven and Earth I love more than Jesus. I close my eyes in prayer and tell Jesus I love him. One day I will put my hands into his nail pierced hands, with my eyes open looking into the eyes of Jesus and tell him, I love you Jesus. "To him who sits on the throne and to the lamb be praise and honour and glory and power, FOREVER and EVER.

Abide with me

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=84YASWe3\_2Q

Psalm 23:4

Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

This is a song that is probably one of the most known by non-church goers in our hymnbooks because of its use on Remembrance and at the FA Cup. But it struck me that in Lent, when Jesus was fasting in the wilderness, in an earthly sense He was on his own. And when Jesus was on the cross He famously called out “My God, My God, why have you forsaken me?” showing how again Jesus knew what it was like to be alone.

When we call out to God when we’re on our own, Jesus is there interceding for us, because He knows what it is like.

Abide with me fast falls the eventide
The darkness deepens Lord with me abide
When other helpers fail and comforts flee
Help of the helpless O abide with me

Verse 2

Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day
Earth's joys grow dim its glories pass away
Change and decay in all around I see
O Thou who changest not abide with me

Verse 3

I need Thy presence ev'ry passing hour
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's pow'r
Who like Thyself my Guide and Stay can be
Through cloud and sunshine O abide with me

Verse 4

I fear no foe with Thee at hand to bless
Ills have no weight and tears no bitterness
Where is death's sting where grave thy victory
I triumph still if Thou abide with me

Verse 5

Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing eyes
Shine through the gloom and point me to the skies
Heav'n's morning breaks
And earth's vain shadows flee
In life in death O Lord abide with me

Matthew 27: 32-56
V33 They came to a place called Golgotha

I think Jesus got used to being uncomfortable. He was born in a stable, a refugee in Egypt, didn't seem to have a permanent 'home' on Earth from his travelling around, was harassed by the religious leaders.... The list goes on.

At Lent we focus on him depriving himself of his earthly needs for 40 days and then the temptation that arrived. And after Lent, in our calendar (even though not in Jesus lifeline) we have Easter where he suffered pain that we can not even begin to understand.

But as verse 4 reminds us, without Jesus overcoming the temptation at Lent, he wouldn't have been good enough to save us. Only Jesus was capable of saving us from our sin.

Is there something that you can abstain from today, and instead spend that time focusing on God and relying on his strength to help you through?

Verse 1

There is a green hill far away
Outside a city wall
Where the dear Lord was crucified
Who died to save us all

Verse 2

We may not know we cannot tell
What pains He had to bear
But we believe it was for us
He hung and suffered there

Verse 3

He died that we might be forgiv'n
He died to make us good
That we might go at last to heav'n
Saved by His precious blood

Verse 4

There was no other good enough
To pay the price of sin
He only could unlock the gate
Of heav'n and let us in

Verse 5

O dearly dearly has He loved
And we must love Him too
And trust in His redeeming blood
And try His works to do

Psalm 139:13-14

For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb. I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well.

Our God is a great big God might not be a song that people think of immediately on the run up to Easter but it is James' favourite church song. The reason he gave for why it is his favourite is that 'I like it because He [God] built us.'

And there is a huge joy that comes from knowing that we are made by God. He's known us from before our parents met, and has plans for our lives if we choose to follow them. I had slightly mis-remembered v14 of Psalm 139, forgetting the 'I praise you because'... and this song reminds us to praise the God who is bigger than anything we can get our heads around, yet holds us in the palms of his hands. And it reminds us at the end of the second part that we're part of God's amazing plan – that amazing plan that involved Jesus dying for us on the cross at Easter and coming back to life so that we could have that relationship with God again.

Amazing Grace (My Chains are gone)

Psalm 85:10-11

God's love will come together with his faithful people.

Goodness and peace will greet them with a kiss.

People on earth will be loyal to God,
and God in heaven will be good to them

This is one of Liane's favourite songs and reminds her of the support given her through challenging situations.

Grace is a gift that we don't deserve, and God wants to help us and strengthen us. And this very famous song is one that reminds us of just how amazing that Grace is. God's ability to work in any situation and to break those chains that were holding us back is beyond our understanding.

In the face of all of that grace – what is our response to be? Like in the Psalm, we're called to be faithful to Him and loyal. Seeking to serve Him and through that those around us.

Pray that God will give you a fresh understanding of His grace to you and give you opportunities to show that and share that with other people.

Romans 3:23

For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God

Jeff commented: When I was 11 I went to Pathfinders and the challenge was to remember bible verses, and this is the chorus that stuck in my mind.

And Lent and Easter both remind us of who is Lord. We all have a choice, like Jesus did in the wilderness. We can either bow down to God and Jesus as our Lord, or we can bow to Satan like he tried to get Jesus to.

When we make Jesus our Lord, we've got access to God's forgiveness and we also receive the Holy Spirit to do God's works in our lives.

Is Jesus your Lord today?

Jesus is Lord

1. Jesus is Lord! Creation's voice proclaims it, for by his power each tree and flower was planned and made. Jesus is Lord! The universe declares it - sun, moon and stars in heaven cry: `Jesus is Lord!'

Jesus is Lord, Jesus is Lord! Praise him with alleluias, for Jesus is Lord.

2. Jesus is Lord! Yet from his throne eternal in flesh he came to die in pain on Calvary's tree. Jesus is Lord! From him all life proceeding - yet gave his life a ransom thus setting us free.
3. Jesus is Lord! O'er sin the mighty conqueror; from death he rose and all his foes shall own his name. Jesus is Lord! God sends his Holy Spirit to show by works of power that Jesus is Lord.

Psalm 17:7,8

Show me the wonders of your great love, you who save by your right hand those who take refuge in you from their foes. Keep me as the apple of your eye; hide me in the shadow of your wings

Colin reminds us that the Bible is full of verses that speak of God's protection over us! He is our rock, our hiding place, our refuge, our safe place, our shield.

Of course, this doesn't mean that nothing bad will ever happen to us! But it does mean that we can place our full trust in him at all times, even when the storms are raging about us!

As you listen to the words of the song, try to visualise God as an eagle sheltering you in his wings.

Lamentations 3: 22-23

The steadfast love of the Lord never fails. His mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning, great is thy faithfulness.

Ruth wrote: “This is my favourite Easter song because it is lively. It reminds me that our blessings are new every morning. Given the apparent bleakness of Good Friday, it is a good reminder that the tomb is filled with light not darkness and that through all the pain there is then joy.

It is a really bouncy tune that I enjoy playing and having a dance with.”

This morning, maybe have a little bounce, jig, or full on dance whilst celebrating what it is that God has done for you at Easter.

Verse 1

See what a morning gloriously bright
With the dawning of hope in Jerusalem
Folded the grave-clothes tomb filled with light
As the angels announce Christ is risen
See God's salvation plan wrought in love
Borne in pain paid in sacrifice
Fulfilled in Christ the Man for He lives
Christ is risen from the dead

Verse 2

See Mary weeping where is He laid
As in sorrow she turns from the empty tomb
Hears a voice speaking calling her name
It's the Master the Lord raised to life again
The voice that spans the years
Speaking life stirring hope bringing peace to us
Will sound till He appears
For He lives Christ is risen from the dead

Verse 3

One with the Father Ancient of Days
Through the Spirit who clothes faith with certainty
Honour and blessing glory and praise
To the King crowned with pow'r and authority
And we are raised with Him
Death is dead love has won Christ has conquered
And we shall reign with Him

Revelation 3:20

Here I am! I stand at the door and knock. If you hear my voice and open the door, I will come in and eat with you. And you will eat with me.

Roy chose this song as it reminds him that 'It was opening the door and let Jesus come in was my start to the Christian pathway for me.'

We all will have different experiences of becoming Christians and someone reading this may not be a Christian yet. Some people may know the time and date, others it might be a general period, some might be quite dramatic and others more run of the mill days.

If you've become a Christian, spend some time thinking about your 'story' with God. Pray through it, maybe even write it down and if even braver share it with someone.

If you're not yet a Christian, consider praying to God about becoming a Christian, and chat to one of us if you need some help.

If you've drifted a bit in your walk, pray with God that He'll help you come back to His loving arms.

Chorus

There's a way back to God

Majesty, worship his majesty

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=SNnTFDNPT3U>

Psalm 145:3-5

Great is the LORD and most worthy of praise; his greatness no one can fathom. One generation commends your works to another; they tell of your mighty acts. They speak of the glorious splendor of your majesty—and I will meditate on your wonderful works.

Debbie chose this song because of the memories it brings back as a teenager in the Mission.

Today is Palm Sunday when people spontaneously broke out in praise to Jesus, worshipping Him as their King coming in the name of the Lord. When the Pharisees challenged Jesus to get people to stop He replied that the stones would call out if he did! If you were asked by someone to stop singing, would your foot keep tapping? Or would you break out into dance instead?

How enthusiastically do you worship God? Does every bit of effort go into worshipping God or is it just going through the motions? Yes worship is more than the songs we sing, but they form an important part of our collective worship.

Pray today that God will help you worship more deeply than before to really worship him for all of his majesty!
