A MOUSE'S TALE - Steve

Hello, this is the Church Mouse squeaking! You may not have seen me, but my friend, Steve, has asked me to write this month's tale.

Actually, my bestest friend is John because, whenever he catches me, he always releases me just over the road, so I can always come straight back and there's always such a warm welcome at Manor Mission! You will carry on welcoming the weak and vulnerable, won't you? (*1)

Anyway, when I first came to Manor Mission, I really enjoyed the services because all the speakers talked about cheeses! It was only when I listened more carefully that I realised they were actually all talking about a Man called Jesus. I've learnt that He's a very, very nice Man. OK, so He didn't mention church mice, but He was very concerned about some other small creatures.

He said that God, His Father, cares even for the tiny sparrows that fall to the ground. People think they're worthless – two a penny - but not God! If He cares for sparrows, He must care for mice, too – and He must also care for YOU! (*2)

Jesus also said He was the Good Shepherd (*3) and told His friend, Peter, to feed His lambs (*4). Lambs are the littlest in His flock, easy to miss. You won't overlook anyone, will you?

As I said, Jesus is God's Son, so He doesn't need anything, but, just before Easter (oh, those hot cross bun crumbs!), I heard a story where He said He needed a donkey, and a little baby donkey at that! (*5) If He needs a baby donkey to do His work, He must also need you and me to play our part, too! (*6)

Anyway, this donkey had never been ridden (*7), so, when I heard that Jesus climbed on its back, I expected it to throw Him. But, it didn't – it carried Him into Jerusalem! It's because He was so gentle, you see. (*8) You will be gentle - won't you? – especially to "little" people like children and the poor and needy (...and mice?) (*9)

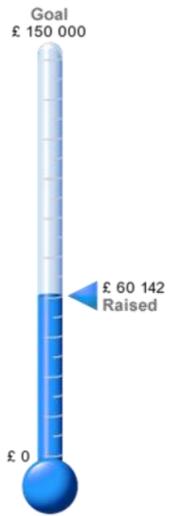

Anyway, I've got to go now because I can hear John coming. I know what he'll do – he'll put a nice custard cream in the trap, give me time to eat it and then take me for a walk over the road again. He really is nice to mice and I think I know why – it's because he's one of Jesus's friends! I hope you are, too! (*10)
