BUILDING FUND

Thank you to everyone who has helped us to now get to £103,182 in the Building Fund. Thank you to everyone who has also donated to the Fun Walk. Those figures haven't yet been totalled and added to this.

We will shortly be needing £24,000 for the drawings for planning permission which will come from the building fund so any donations are very helpful.

Dave's Thought - Unless you become like little children

I have two wonderful grandsons who despite their young ages of 3 and 4 have given me a real insight into how Jesus may see us. Perhaps when we are excited about something and fully engage with enthusiasm and commitment as opposed to not doing things or only doing them reluctantly, wanting to spend our time doing something else. Do you see yourself in any of those scenarios?

Recently I was really amazed at one of their insights into prayer. James will regularly and sometimes spontaneously pray at mealtimes, not only thanking Jesus for the food, but also for a list of other activities and events during the day, that he and the family have been engaged in. I heard from his dad that in one of these prayers he had said something that really challenged me and my perspective on prayer. James at the end of his prayer included the following – “And God, I hope you have a good day too”. It struck me how often our prayers are centred on us and our perspective, even when praying for others – think about it – how often, if we are honest, do we pray for what we want to happen in situations and hope that it's the same as God's will. How often do we reflect if Jesus is having a good day – His thoughts may be deeper than ours, but the Bible gives us an in-depth view of what God thinks about certain things e.g., injustice, mercy, forgiveness, loving our neighbour, the poor, marginalised and loving our enemies.

So, a challenge next time you come to prayer – reflectively consider – I wonder what Jesus is thinking about this situation and then do something that will hopefully improve God's Day and answer James' prayer – 'And God, I hope you have a good day too.'
